

HIGH FRICTION SURFACING TRAINING SEMINAR

A one day event for technicians, engineers and managers – CPD Approved by CIHT
1st December 2010

Durham County Council, Service Direct, St. Johns Road, Meadowfield Industrial Estate,
Durham DH7 8XQ

9.15-9.30	Welcome and Introduction (Howard Robinson – RSTA)
9.30-10.00	The Need for High Friction Surfacing (Brian Gilbert - Jobling Purser)
10.00-10.45	The Importance of Skid Resistance (Richard Hughes – Ennis Prismo)
10.45-11.30	Types of High Friction Surfacing Systems (Paul Liles – HTS Consultancy)
11.30-11.45	Coffee break
11.45-12.15	An Appreciation of Calcined Bauxite Aggregates (Andrew Saunders– Newport Industries)
12.15-1.00	LUNCH BREAK
1.00-1.30	Traffic Management (Paul Goosey – Eurovia Specialist Treatments)
1.30-2.00	BBA HAPAS Product Certification / Approved Installers Scheme (Peter Maddern - BBA)
2.00-2.45	Health & Safety on HFS Sites (Barry Agutter - Colas)
2.45-3.00	Afternoon tea break
3.00-3.30	Durability of HFS Systems and Preventing Failures (Ian Walsh– Road Consultants)
3.30-4.00	Multiple Choice Test Paper (Successful candidates will receive the RSTA Silver Certificate)
4.15	Course Closes

To book places on the course contact Lydia Vaux: lvaux@rsta-uk.org or Tel: 01206 274052

For information about the course content contact Howard Robinson: hrobinson@rsta-uk.org