

Driving forward the sustainable options

After 2 years without an RSTA Conference, we will examine where highways maintenance is going in 2022/23 and beyond, sustainability and innovation, training the next generation of roadworkers and the effects on mental health from abuse and Covid changes.

Agenda

- 8.30 Registration, Coffee & Exhibition
Woodlands Conservatory
- 9:15 CONFERENCE IN THE WOODLANDS SUITE
Chairman's Welcome and Introduction
Keith Brett | Kiely Bros
- 9:20 All Change
Paul Boss, Chief Executive | RSTA
- 9.30 A look ahead for Highways Maintenance: 2022/23
Matthew Eglinton, Head of Local Highways Maintenance, Innovation, and Resilience, Local Infrastructure | DfT
- 9.55 Sustainability and Innovation in Highway Asset Management
Ian Large, Highways & Traffic Performance Manager | Blackpool Council
- 10:20 Break and Exhibition
Woodlands Conservatory
- 10:40 Future Skills and CITB Support in The Construction Industry
Lorna Banks, CITB Advisor | CITB
- 11:05 Abuse, Covid and Beyond - Does our wellbeing really suffer?
Jamie Forsyth, Wellbeing Coach | Amey
- 11:30 Carbon Reduction and Sustainability
Round table discussion led by Adrian Tatum, Director | Boundary Marketing and PR
- 11:50 Q&A
- 12:00 Buffet lunch & Exhibition
Woodlands Conservatory
- 13:00 2022 Annual RSTA Golf Tournament (sponsored by Acmar),
Outdoor Pursuits (sponsored by Asphalt Group Limited) or Dabbler's Golf
- 18:00 Afternoon activities close

